

VOCABULARY

*Foster family: a family that isn't your family who looks after you for a short time.

*Ashes: a grey dust when you burn something.

Nobel Prize: Every year a prize is given in six subjects. They are physics, chemistry, medicine, literature, peace, and economics. The prizes honour people in the world who do incredible work in one of these subjects.

Poet's Corner: a place in Westminster Abbey where many

He received the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1907.

Rudyard's son John died during the First World War.

Rudyard Kipling died on January 18th, 1936, at the age of 70.

His *ashes were buried in the Poet's Corner in Westminster Abbey.

In 1892 Kipling married Caroline Balestier. She was his daughter called Elsie.

In 1894 he published The Jungle Book in England.

In 1897 they had a _____ called John. In 1899 Josephine died of pneumonia. She was six years

They had a _____ called Josephine in 1892 and after 4 years in _____ moved back to England and had another daughter called Elsie.

In 1894 he published The Jungle Book in England.

In 1897 they had a _____ called John. In 1899 Josephine died of pneumonia. She was six years

When he was 5 Rudyard and his _____ Alice went to England to live in a *foster home.

It was terrible and his mum rescued them and put him in a school where he was happy.

When he was 17, in the year _____ he moved back to India as a journalist. He wrote many things and these things became his stories and poems.

GLUE TO LAPBOOK

Joseph Rudyard Kipling was born in _____ in India in 1865.

His parents met in England and married and moved to _____ in 1865.

They named their first child Joseph _____. His second name, _____ was the name of the lake where his parents met.

His sister Alice was born in _____

CUT- along the red line