QUOTES

These are some of the most meaningful quotes are from the Jungle Book by Rudyard Kipling.

Choose your favourite.

"A normal boy would have been badly bruised, for the fall was a good fifteen feet, but Mowgli fell as Baloo had taught him to fall, and landed on his feet."

I speak for the man's cub. There is no harm in a man's cub. I have no gift of words, but I speak the truth. Let him run with the Pack, and be entered with the others. I myself will teach him.
Baloo

I have the Pack and I have you; and Baloo...Why should I be afraid?"

You are of the Jungle and not of the Jungle. And I am only a black panther. But I love thee, Little Brother.
BAGHEERA

For the strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack.

"By Red Flower Bagheera meant fire, only no creature in the jungle will call fire by its proper name. Every beast lives in deadly fear of it, and invents a hundred ways of describing it."

"To each his own fear."
Baloo

Now the Law of the Jungle says that the cub can be accepted by the Pack, if at least two members of the Pack who are not his father and mother stand up for him."

Bagheera heard and the cry that told him Mowgli was safe gave him courage

"To each his own fear."
